HENRY DEANE

Level 5 Cocktail bar

No doubt you've heard about the Henry Deane rooftop and we can certify the rumours are all true - it is one of the most phenomenal spaces in Sydney to take in the unprecendened panoramic views. Henry Deane is the zenith of Hotel Palisade where it reveals its contemporary charisma. Do not let the word rooftop decieve you, the entire level is encased in glass.

Although Henry Deane is essentially a cocktail lounge, it's best described as a 'hybrid' due to the venue operating restaurant-style during the day, with lunch seatings and table service. When the afternoon rolls around and the sun begins to retire, an ambience of a bar and upscale lounge sets the tone for the evening.

It's easy to fall in love with Sydney all over again, while relaxing on our lounges, sipping champagne and spoiling your tastebuds. Stare out across the city's magnificent waterfront, with boats cruising by, twinkling city lights dancing on the horizon and a vivid sunset. The Henry Deane rooftop lounge is the perfect place to mingle amongst your friends.

Please note Henry Deane is not licensed for minors including babies.

FLYING FOX

Level 5 Semi-Private Area

Small groups of up to 12 guests

The Flying Fox is located on the top floor of Henry Deane and is undeniably the jewel of Henry Deane's crown. It's a place to kick back on plush settees & lounges to watch the boats on the harbour float on by.

The lounge area comfortably fits a group of up to 12 people and is the perfect space to lounge and admire the breathtakingly beautiful views Sydney has to offer.

With our sharing menu 'Food Between a Few' on offer, this is the closest you'll get to heaven on earth.

THE DINING CHAMBER

Cocktail Bar and Private Dining Area

- Groups up to 15 guests cocktail style
- Groups up to 10 guests seated

The Dining Chamber is a crystal chamber located on level 4 of Henry Deane and is a space that can offer two different experiences - private dining of supreme accord or a cocktail-style soiree.

The space, encased in glass and flooded with natural light, boasts views of the newly developed Barangaroo and water views. It includes the luxury of a private curtain to pull across should you prefer a more private and intimate experience for you and your guests.

Conveniently, the area is also positioned next to our level 4 bar, which means you'll always have a cocktail in hand. Groups of 12 and less may choose from the 'Food Between a Few' sharing menu and order on the day (a la carte style) for a seated dining experience.

A party of 11 - 15 is required to pre-order from the 'Graze Away' menu for a cocktail-style soiree. A set menu is required for groups between 8 - 10 in this space. Set menu is $85 per head and can cater to dietary requirements.

THE PALOUR

Private Area within Public House Bar

Groups of up to 50 guests

The Parlour within the Public House can be booked out for private gatherings & soirees. The Public House is a place where the history of the community is both wicked and respectable, but always with a very strong sense of camaraderie. Join the brigade.

The design was inspired by the small trades of eras passed: the handtooled, handsmithed and handtinkered. The Parlour was 'ladies only' many years ago - a place of secrets, mystique and hidden beauty. We have converted it into an intimate space that can house cocktail parties with panache.

The space is semi-private, suited to casual affairs and can be booked as a shared space for 20 guests. A semi-private experience can be arranged for 50 guests with our 'Palour Bites' menu being made available and a completely private space for up to 30 guests.

Please note our ground floor pub is the only venue in our building licensed for minors.
